BRIGHT FUTURES FARM EQUINE CHARITY RECEIVES GRANT FROM THOROUGHBRED CHARITIES OF AMERICA (TCA)

Bright Futures Farm equine charity (BFF) was established in 2000 to help ex-racehorses, in particular, find new homes and new careers after they are done racing. In 2014 We established TARP (Thoroughbred Advocacy, Retraining & Placement) which provides professional training to off track Thoroughbreds to provide them with a strong foundation for new careers.

TARP utilizes two professional trainers, Lisa Miller, a trainer and show judge in OH specializing in the Western Disciplines, and Heather Mehal, an USDF Gold Medal trainer in NC specializing in Dressage. Our horses are reschooled on the flat, over jumps, in the arena, field and on trails.

TCA raises and distributes money to charitable organizations in Thoroughbred retirement, retraining and rehoming; research; backstretch and farm employee programs; and therapeutic riding programs. This fund supports registered, 501(c)(3) organizations that specialize in retirement and rehabilitation services and offer a peaceful and permanent sanctuary for these beautiful animals.

Bright Futures Farm rescues Thoroughbred horses from auctions, abuse and neglect then rehabilitates and retrains them, eventually finding them pre-screened, qualified adoptive homes in the Eastern United States, and provides permanent sanctuary to a number of elder or disabled equines.
